Anexo C.

US DEPARTMENT OF STATE HEALTH INSURANCE REQUIREMENT FOR J1 VISITING SCHOLARS

Important: All Exchange Visitors (both J-1 principals and J-2 dependents) are required to have sickness, accident, medical evacuation, and repatriation insurance in effect for the entire duration of their EV status. A willful failure to carry insurance is considered to be a violation of the EVP regulations.

US DEPARTMENT OF STATE REQUIREMENTS

62.14 - Insurance

- medical benefits of at least $50,000 per accident or illness
- a co-payment not greater than 25% of the covered benefits per accident or illness
- a deductible not to exceed $500 per accident or illness
- a waiting period for pre-existing conditions that is reasonable by current industry standards
- coverage for activities inherent to the exchange program (i.e., flight training for an aviation school)
- repatriation of remains in an amount of $7,500
- expenses associated with the medical evacuation of the exchange visitor to his or her home country in the amount of $10,000

HEALTH INSURANCE OPTIONS

Before your J1 Program starts, you must check-in with the Office of International Faculty & Scholars to present your insurance documentation in English showing that coverage meets DOS requirements and is in effect by the start of your J1 Program. If you do not have health insurance in effect as of the J1 Program start date listed on your DS2019, you will be required to purchase a policy.

- Coverage from Home Country

Visitors are welcome to bring health insurance for themselves and their dependents from their home countries for the duration of their J1 Program, providing the insurance documentation is in English showing that coverage meets DOS requirements and is in effect by the start of the J1 Program.

- Arriving with No Health Insurance Coverage

If you do not have health insurance in effect by the start of your J1 Program, you will be required to purchase an acceptable plan, for example The University of Arizona endorsed Student Health Insurance Plan before your J-1 program will be validated in SEVIS.
